DEADWOOD, D. T., February 20.—The surrounding counties met in convention on Saturday to consider the propriety of bonding to the amount of 10 per cent, of their assessed valuation for the encouragment of railroad building to the hills. The attendance was large and there was great unanimity of sentiment. A committee was speat manually of sentiment. A committee was appointed to prepare a bill for Congress, granting the requirete authority. It is proposed to raise $700,000 in bonds, to run twenty years, drawing 7 per cent, interest, to be offered to the first completed line. A largely-attended banquet was given in the evening by the Board of Trade.

Prosperity Follows a Well-Managed The annual report of President Veech, of he Louisville, New Albany and Chicago road, shows the gross carnings for 1830 to be $836,252; for 1881, $947.654; operating ex-penses for 1880, $593.343; for 1881, $717,082; t earnings for 1880, $242 908; for 1881, 0,571. The apparent increase in operating expenses and decrease in net carnings in 1881, compared with 1880, is due to the fact that the worn out track, structures and machinery found on the road in 1880 were rebuilt and charged to construction instead of operating expenses, while much that was then in a bad condition, yet good enough for snother year, was repaired in 1881, and the another year, was repaired in 1881, and the cost charged to repairs instead of constructing as was done the year before. The general account exhibited shows that the only indebtedness of the company, when the line is finished, will be $53,000,000 in bonds and $5,000,000 of stock in 450 miles of road, of which nearly half will be laid with steel rails. This is only a little over $11,000 per mile. There is not one dollar of floating debt. Four thousand tons of steel rails, costing $25,966,-805, were purchased and laid during the year.

WEEKLY REVIEW. At the close of the APPEAL's review of the cotton market for the week ending Friday, February 10th, middling in New York was quoted 11 le, on which price the past week now under review opened, but was reduced to on the second day (Monday). On Tuesday 1-16c additional reduction was announced, and 11 9 loc ruled through that and the day following. On Thursday a reaction amounting to 1-16c occurred, Since September 1st. recovering the value to 112c, which was maintained the remainder of the week.

The New York future market opened with The New York future market opened with a slight advance on all months excepting February, November and December—the first named declining 5 points and the other two 1 point each. The second day (Monday) announced a paralyzing break in prices, the reductions ranging from 21 to 32 points followed by additional losses on Tuesday. On Wednesday a sharp reaction came about, re-storing values to the amount of nearly half storing values to the amount of nearly half the losses of the two previous days. Thurs-day witnessed another falling off, light for current deliveries, but ranging from 8 to 12 points for other months. On Friday prices again rallied, all months regaining from 12 to 16 points. The result of the week was a gain of 9 points for January, and losses for other months ranging from 8 to 20 points— distant active months being the heaviest losers.

urday, thus disposes of the events of the week; "While the general tone of the con-tract market has continued feverish, and appeared to succumb to depressing influences rather more readily than to those of an opposing nature during the past two or three days, the 'bear' element has certainly proven less rampant, and a bold push on several occasions was successful in stimulating quite a little advance. Indeed, some of the trade were of the opinion that improvements made could have been maintained had the 'bulls' thrown off the timid, demoralized feeling under which they have so long been laboring and worket more thoroughly in unison in the effort to bring about a reaction. The liberal liquidation of 'long' cotton, without forther failures, which the busy tongue of umor was constantly predicting, further ad-litions to the 'short' interest reported, and ecasional gleams of strength at Liverpool, oupled with light receipts an l indications that cotton was being secured for export through the purchase of 'short' notices, have all tended to inspire a hope that heavy shrinkage on cost has brought the position to a basis where a firmer eling may at least be secured, even if no reportant recovery takes place. It is, how-ver, not difficult to find those who still look upon the position of the 'longs' as precarious, and expect a further break before hard-pan an be shown. They claim that whatever gain the market may have made, or appears to promise, is based upon speculative theo-ries alone, and until sentiment is abandoned and more legitimate influences of actual supply and demand assert themselves there is little chance for a healthier state of offairs. In short, it is the former idea that lent enough to invest and get the accumulated supplies properly in motion, without much regard to how much cotton is yet to ome forward on the present growth or any necessity for worry over the crop not yet fully planted."

She returned last night with a light load. The Raymond Horner, which came back here to repair her rudder, completed the work and returned to her tow Sunday evening, and will resume her voyage south. The W. W. O'Neil arrived from below yesterday morning with a tow of empty barges. She will add several more here, and pass up for the Ohio some time to-day. The new packet D. R. Powell, at present in the Auchor-Line service, passed down for New Orleans late Saturday night, in command of Captain R. J. Whitledge. She was well filled with freight. The City of Baton Rouge, 3 days and 12 hours out from New Orleans, arrived Sunday morning, laid here a couple of hours discharging and receiving, and passed on up for St. Louis. She had a good passenger trip. All sorts of stories are current about the condition of the levees below here, which will stand a little sifting in order to reduce the sensational features. The facts are bad enough and need no sensationalizing The James Lee has been laid up for the present, the Coahoma taking her place in the Friars Point trade, making two trips a week, also two trips a week to Osceola—keeping up both trades until the water b:comes navigable to intermediate points.

Rumors were current in the city yesterday that a break had occurred in the levee at Australia Landing, about one hundred and fifty miles below here. Particulars from a reliable source will be found in the telegraphic advices on the first page.

The wind blew in torrents and the rain fell in a perfect cyclone between 3 and 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and extra lines were necessary to make boats in port behave themselves during the performance. As far as heard from no damage was done. The Charles Morgan arrived Sunday night, 4 days out from New Orleans, with 800 tons of freight and her cabins crowded with people. Twenty-five passengers were added to her list here, besides a lot of steck and freight. After discharging a lot of freight she passed on up for Cincinnati.

Sunday's river telegrams condensed: Pitts-burg, raining and river rising; Cincinnati, heavy rain all afternoon and evening, and rising rapidly; Louisville, rain all day, and rising rapidly; Evansville, light showers during the day, heavy rain at night; Cairo, clouds and rising. Nashville, falling. cloudy, and rising; Nashville, falling Wheeling, raining and rising. A telegram from Louisville Sunday, says: 'Great crowds visited the levee to-day to see the big river. The river rose nearly 2 feet during the past 24 hours and is rising, with 28 feet 6 inches in the canal, and 27 feet 6 inches in the chute on the falls. The foot of Fourth street is cut off by the water from Il communication with the river." St. Louis Republican, Sunday: "The City of Ironton was so unfortunate about 5 o'clock vesterday evening, in backing under the Newport bridge, as to knock both her chimneys down, one landing on the roof and the other falling over the starboard side, but was saved by the guys just above the water on the lower guards. The upper railing was considerably broken, but the chimney not damaged otherwise than broken off. Repairs will be made as soon as possible."

The City of New Orleans passed down for New Orleans about noon yesterday with 1800 tons of freight and 60 cabin passengers, among whom were the following prominent people: D. R. Garrison and famity, St. Louis; Mrs. James Cox and nicces, Keokuk; J. H. Orr and wife, Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Richards and nicces, St. Louis; Mrs. L. The bill also reserves Congress the right to withdraw the authority delegated or demand a change whenever navigation on the river may be obstructed by the structure. Steamboatmen on the Missis sippi should follow the example of their Pittsburg conferes and take vigorous steps to rectify any shortcomings of bridge companies in the construction of this or any bridg over that stream." The Selma (Ala.) Toncs, of the 9th, su that all efforts to obtain further details of t capsizing of the Mary D. on the Cahawb were unsatisfactory and ineffectual. The wreck is only three miles up the river from Cahawba, though only half a mile off takin a cut across the bend. The cargo of cotto was saved, though in a damaged condition and the boat was ruined in the necessary cut ting to get out the cargo. She will be aban doned after her machinery is taken out o her. The Mary D, we believe, is not un known to these waters; at least, there was some years ago, a steamer of the same name owned and operated in the vicinity of Ports mouth. She had one wheel, which was pro-pelled by a belt, or maybe two.
